

Each of us experiences demands for our time and energy, both on and off the job. In addition to our responsibilities at work, we also seek to fulfill our family responsibilities, meet our financial obligations, enjoy personal interests, and maintain a healthy family and social life. The key to balancing it all is having access to the right tools, resources and support.

Personal Assistance Services (PAS) provides you with a wealth of confidential, professional services that can help you address challenges and strengthen your work and home life.

This is a pre-paid benefit funded completely by your employer and free to you and your dependents. The EAP is confidential - PAS does not disclose information to anyone about your participation unless you give your consent to do so*.

PAS providers include:

- Certified financial counselors
- Attorneys
- Elder care managers
- Child care specialists
- Certified child development and parenting professional
- Organization and time management specialists
- Retirement coaches
- Career coaches
- Tobacco cessation coaches
- Master's level licensed counselors
- Registered and licensed dietitians
- Life coaches
- Health coaches
- and more!
